

HE'D WHISTLE 'EM AWAY.

When troubles sorely bristle
An' thorns are in the way,
If a feller'd only whistle
He'd whistle 'em away!

F. L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Bessie Walker has returned
for her visit to Beaufort.

Rev. P. B. Lanham, of Rogers, was in town on Monday of this week.

The English cotton market is firm and we shall soon see what we shall see.

Mr. Fleming Mosely, of Georgia, is visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Jesse Morgan.

Miss Marie Abney has returned to Edgefield from Atlanta, where she has spent most of the winter.

Capt George Evans, member of the legislature, came over from Columbia on Saturday and spent Sunday with his mother at Oakley Park.

Rev. J. C. Abney, a Saluda-Edgefield man, and a member of the South Carolina Methodist Conference, is Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

FOR SALE—Some second-hand mules and a good horse. Also a small steam engine and two sets mill rock and gin.

Mr. Frank Fair left our town on Monday of this week for Chattanooga, where he goes to accept a position in a large furniture manufacturing establishment.

From all accounts it seems that every body is going to vote for Brooks Mayson this year for the House of Representatives. We don't make or attempt to make, any explanation of this, but it is so.

A factory has been started in Sumter for the manufacture of Golf sticks from persimmon trees. Here is hope for Edgefield from our old fields full of persimmon trees with no persimmons on them.

Since the freeze and the snow, and the subsequent rains and milder weather, the small grain—the wheat and oats—have come out wonderfully, and a beautiful green now covers all the landscape, or at any rate a "right smart" of it.

Bishop Warburton is reported to have said that high birth was a thing which he never knew any one to disparage, except those who had it not, and he never knew any one to make a boast of it who had anything else to be proud of.—Whately.

We should like to shoot off our mouth on the dispensary law for the benefit of the legislature now in session, but we don't know what to say or to advise. Will some smart Aleck tell us? If, in the multitude of counsel on this subject there is wisdom there is also a sight of fool talk.

Rev. Geo. W. Davis preached his first sermon in our Methodist church on Sunday morning past to a large audience, and he made a deep impression on his hearers. His own people were especially delighted. Let us hold up his hands for the good work to be accomplished under his administration during the year 1900.

Twenty-four Quarless and twenty-two Holmeses are attending the Red Hill High School. There are enough in these two families to start another new county, the only trouble is that they are such good folks old Edgefield can't nor won't spare 'em to make another new county, nor for any other purpose.

The Red Hill High School, Prof. T. E. Dorn, principal, is prospering wonderfully, having nearly one hundred pupils. The people of the vicinity are taking great interest in the school as they ought to do, and there are pupils even from Augusta in attendance. Prof Dorn is a graduate, last year, of our own S. C. C. I.

The Pleasant Lane Agricultural
Club call a meeting of the farmers of Edgefield county to meet at Edgefield C. H. on Friday, the 26th January inst., to take some action in regard to the advance of the price of fertilizers brought about by the fertilizer trust. Greenwood county farmers have already spoken in this matter in tones not loud but deep, that they will not use any of the infernal stuff for the year 1900.

Eleven new students have matriculated at the S. C. C. I. since Christmas. There are now twenty students who, not finding room in the Institute, are accommodated outside in private families. Oh for a building commensurate to the growing needs of this school, and its manifest destiny, i. e., to be the grandest institution for the co-education of girls and boys, young men and young women this side of Mason and Dixon's or anybody's else line.

Mr. Benj. J. Crooker has on hand and for sale, of his own manufacture, a score of beautiful one-horse wagons with his own brand and mark on them at his wagon emporium and shops in South Edgefield, all warranted not to ravel or run down at the heels. Mr. Crooker deserves great credit for this and push he has put into his business and the solid, substantial, durable and beautiful goods he is turning out. Edgefield is proud of her young son. He is a Crooker who never croaks.

LANDRETH'S GARDEN SEED.

We have just received our supply of LANDRETH'S GARDEN SEED for 1900. Now is the time to sow.

The firm of C. E. May & Co. has been dissolved by the withdrawal of "Pig" Smith. Charlie will go it alone.

Mr. W. H. Bussey has sold out his interest in the firm of L. E. Jackson & Co. to Mr. Jackson, who will continue business at the old stand.

Siberian millet is a new candidate for popular favor in the forage line. In another column of this paper we give a short description of it.

Mr. C. M. Williams having declined to longer hold the office of Supervisor of Registration will necessitate the appointment of another man. Mr. C. E. Quarles, of the Red Hill section, has been highly recommended for the place.

Gov Sheppard has been unanimously elected President pro tem of the State Senate, vice Mr. Scarborough, who is now Lieutenant Governor and President of Senate by reason of Gov. McSweeney's succession to the position of Governor.

Since the destructive fire of last June in Augusta, Wm. Schweigert & Co. have erected at 702 Broad Street a most beautiful and commodious four story building, which this old and popular firm now offers to the public a most beautiful, varied and extensive assortment of jewelry, watches, etc. You never go amiss if you trade at Schweigert's.

Frank L. Stanton has discovered for the Atlanta Constitution another letter of a Georgia boy. This one was written by a rural youngster to a friend in Atlanta, and read: "Last Tuesday dad bought a young mule that was not broke. Dad tried to teach the mule how to pull a plow. The mule is still with us."

The purpose of social functions should be pleasure; when they are put in the newspapers the purpose becomes parade, and it is all vulgarized and made cheap and boastful. The real pleasure is spoiled. We would as lief have a general mob let into a private house or urged to a social gathering as to have either displayed for miscellaneous perusal the morning after—Greenlieve News.

If you are intending to have a garden this next spring, which is already fixing to burst upon us, get your garden and garden tools ready, and last, but not least, get your garden seeds, Landreth's seeds are, if not the best, as good as the best, and they will be found at Lynch's Drug Store. See advertisement at the head of our last page and never forget that you will always find it at the same place and spot.

One of Moody's favorite stories was about a converted miser to whom a neighbor in distress appealed for help. The miser decided to prove the genuineness of his conversion by giving him a ham. On his way to get it the tempter whispered, "Give him the smallest one you have." A mental struggle ensued, and finally the miser took down the largest ham he had. "You are a fool," the devil said, and the farmer replied, "If you don't keep still I'll give him every ham in the smoke-house!"

A most beautiful marriage ceremony was that performed by Rev. A. J. Reamy at the marriage of Mr. J. M. Bell, Jr., and Miss Julia Henrietta Strom, at the residence of the bride's parents, in our town, on Wednesday afternoon last. There was quite a large gathering of friends and relatives of the happy couple, and the many presents were beautiful, useful, and valuable. The ceremony by Mr. Reamy was brief but chaste, beautiful, and impressive and the congratulations and good wishes to the bride and groom were as numerous as sincere.

Here is good news for horse swappers in the decision of a Greenville magistrate, that lying in a horse swap or cow didn't count: "The decision of Magistrate Mauldin in the trial of Albert Stenhouse, the negro prosecuted by Mrs. Martha Reynolds for cheating her in the swapping of a cow to her, was rendered yesterday. It was proved that the negro made gross misrepresentations to effect the swap, but Magistrate Mauldin holds that this sort of lying cannot count in court, because it was not sworn to, and he therefore found the defendant "not guilty. According to this decision horse traders are at liberty to make all the misrepresentations they choose in trading.

United Confederate Vets.

Capt. George B. Lake, a South Carolina "war scar," is in the city, stopping at 740 Fifth street. His home is Edgefield, in the Palmetto state, and he has the distinction of having been buried before he died. He and his company had the honor of being present and almost immediately over the famed "crater" at Petersburg, Va., when it was blown up and 17 of his men were instantly killed, while he and others were buried completely in the ruins. Capt. Lake is very enthusiastic over the Confederate reunion to be held in Louisville, and says South Carolina will come here singing this song:

Git my old knapsack, Mary, and my uniform of gray, Git my battered helmet, Mary, for I'll need 'em all today; Git my canteen an' my leggings, reach me down an' my rusty gun, For I'm goin' out paradin' wi' the boys of sixty-one.

Never mind them bloodstains, Mary, never mind them a good hole, and garden tools ready, and last, but not least, get your garden seeds, Landreth's seeds are, if not the best, as good as the best, and they will be found at Lynch's Drug Store. See advertisement at the head of our last page and never forget that you will always find it at the same place and spot.

Where She Couldn't Go. The spinner on the platform grew more vehement. She drank two glasses of water from the big white pitcher and pounded the table until the display of glass and crockery were leaped again.

"I thank heaven," she cried, "that I am free from all matrimonial chains! What use have I for a husband? I want neither a slave nor a tyrant. I am free as air I can go and come as I please. No door is shut to me; no assembly bars me out. Is there a solitary gathering to which I may not have free and unrestrained access?"

"Yes," cried a shrill voice in the rear of the hall.

"And what is it?" sternly demanded the spinner.

"The convention of mothers!" shrieked the voice.

Then the orator turned pale and went and sat down.—Washington Star.

Suffering from female troubles should try the "Old Time" Remedy.

BENEDICTA PLANTERS OR FEMALE REGULATOR

It has no equal. It strengthens the delicate female organs and builds a woman up. All suffering and irregularities at "monthly" periods can be avoided by its use. It is for young girls, nursing mothers, and for women at change of life. Should be used before child-birth.
